

Planning "Round the World" Theme

Member of Court St. Catherine, CDA, are busy studying the dress, lore and customs of other lands, in preparation for their second annual International Luncheon to be held tomorrow at noon at Nativity Parish Annex, Arlington and Encracia Ave. In an international setting, gourmet dishes from other countries will be served. Planning the event are, from left, Mmes. Paul Labonawski, grand regent, looking at a pleasant dress; Gordon Micks, chairman, holding a tankard; Robert Hammerle, co-chairman, holding doll and David Biloki, in foreign costume. Others assisting are Mmes. James Allen, Armond Dixon, John Geouge, Herman Ludwig, George Probert, Rodney Stetson, Donald Randles, Paul McDonald and Misses Vivian Dubal and Grace Young. Proceeds will be used for the court's charities. Press-Herald Photo)

Join Parents In Canada For Holiday

Misses Deryle and Gaye Faulds have returned to Torrance after spending their Christmas vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Faulds, formerly of Torrance, who are now making their home at Etobicoke, Ontario, Canada.

Deryle Faulds will be graduated as a medical assistant from Blair College late this month and Gaye Faulds is with United Airlines.

During their Canadian holiday they enjoyed winter sports, skiing, sledding and snow-mobiling.

On Sunday, Dec. 29, Miss Deryle Faulds, who will be married to SP5 Michael James O'Neal in a ceremony at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in Torrance on March 22, was complimented at a surprise personal shower given by her aunts, Mrs. J. Kirkland and Mrs. J. Jolliffe in Etobicoke.

Pink and white party decorations featured a pink tulle umbrella over the future bride's place of honor, butterflies, flowers and a bright pink bird. A buffet was enjoyed and the future bride was showered with gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Faulds are planning to return to Torrance for their daughter's wedding in March.

Farewell Party Fetes Area Beta Sigmas To Attend Breakfast

Dr. and Mrs. Leslie R. Koval and three children, Marshall, Deborah and Gerald, 21509 Redbeam Ave., Torrance, will leave soon for Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, where Dr. Koval will teach mechanical engineering at the Federal University in Rio and act as an advisor to graduate students. The Koval children will attend the Escola Americana while in Brazil.

Dr. and Mrs. Koval were guests of honor at a farewell dinner party given Jan. 4 by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Chertock at their home, 20701 Toluca Ave.

After dinner, a large cake, decorated with a miniature airplane and tiny pieces of luggage, was served. The Kovals were presented with several pieces of luggage.

Attending the farewell party were Dr. Koval's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Koval of Tazana, and his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Max Sweedler of Reseda.

Others were Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert Greenbaum of Encino; Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Haas, Manhattan Beach; Messrs. and Mmes. Irvin Becker, Howard Milstein and Dr. and Mrs. Provin Bhuta of Torrance; Messrs. and Mmes. Seymour Bogin and Dominic Scrooc, Redondo Beach; Manny Feiger and Matt King, Palos Verdes Peninsula and Edward Shimko, Rolling Hills.

Presbyterian Women Will Hear Speaker

Women's Association of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Redondo Beach, has scheduled a luncheon meeting Jan. 21 at 11:30 a.m. in Fellowship Hall.

Mrs. J. L. Wood will present "Women of the New Testament and United Presbyterian Women." She will discuss a mock election of women from the New Testament for the various offices held by Presbyterian women. Mrs. Wood, daughter of Rev. Milton Sippel, minister of the Torrance First Christian Church, is a graduate of Chapman College in Orange.

Circle 6 will be the luncheon hostess and Mrs. Leonard Hartley will lead the devotions.

Reservations are being taken by Mrs. Howard Lee and Mrs. T. N. Apostol. A nursery is provided for children.

Approximately 80 members, representing 16 chapters of the South Bay Area Council of Beta Sigma Phi, will attend the Southern California Council breakfast meeting Sunday, Jan. 19, 10 a.m., in the Los Angeles Room of the Century Plaza Hotel, Century City.

Members and guests of the Council will be informed on their main philanthropic project, Cystic Fibrosis, when Dr. Kenneth Elconin, president of the greater Los Angeles Cystic Fibrosis Chapter, will appear as the guest speaker. Dr. Elconin's talk will cover advancement in research, citing a few case histories and give some good news on an expected breakthrough in this now fatal disease; he will also tell of the allocations of Beta Sigma Phi donations to help combat cystic fibrosis.

Mrs. A. W. Anderson, president of the Southern California Council, will preside over the meeting and will welcome guests: Herbert Brandt, Cystic Fibrosis Director of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Chloe Karr, Cystic Fibrosis Director of Orange County. Mrs. Charles Seamer, philanthropic chairman for the Southern California Council area, will accept donations to this worthy cause from many of the chapters represented at the breakfast.

Lifetime members of Beta Sigma Phi will be honored at this breakfast.

Reservation chairman is Mrs. Paul Manning. Mrs. Larry Buckeridge, breakfast chairman, announced the theme of the breakfast, "Petals in Pinafores," carrying out the use of organdy pinafores in miniature for table decorations and programs. Hostesses will be attired in pastel princess style dresses and white organdy pinafores.
